

BY THE

Lords-Justices and COUNCIL, A PROCLAMATION.

CAPELL, CYRILL WICH, W. DUNCOMBE.

WH E R E A S James Leary late of Wexford, Marriner, a black, tall, slender Man, about forty years of age, and Philip Kelly, Marriner, a tall slender black man full of pockholes, about fifty years of age; being His Majesty's natural born Subjects of this Kingdom, were heretofore taken in actual Treason and Rebellion by them acted on the high Seas, and were committed to Prison, and since their Commitment an Indictment of High Treason hath been preferred against them to the Grand Jury of the County of Dublin, who have found the same; and the Tryal of the said Persons being to come on the 19th day of this instant January: The said Persons by the assistance of Rebekah Windgrave, Spinster, a young Woman about the age of fifteen years, tall, slender and dark brown hair, Katherine mc. Donnell, Spinster, about the age of twenty six years, tall and strong, a pale complexion and dark coloured hair; Purcell, a fresh coloured man about forty years of age, wears his own hair, brown and lank: And other wicked and evil disposed Persons have on the seventeenth instant in the Night time broke his Majesty's Goal of Kilmmainham, and fled from Justice in company with the said Rebekah Windgrave, Katherine mc. Donnell and Purcell. We being desirous that Persons who have been such publick and notorious Enemies of His Majesty, and of the peace and Welfare of the Kingdom may be discovered and brought to exemplary punishment, have thought fit hereby to publish and declare that if any person or persons shall discover the said James Leary, Philip Kelly, Rebekah Windgrave and Katherine mc. Donnell, or any of them, so as they may be apprehended, and put into the custody of the Law, the said person so discovering shall for every of the said Persons so discovered and caused to be apprehended, as aforesaid, receive the rewards following; that is to say, for each of the said James Leary and Philip Kelly the sum of twenty pounds, and for each of the said Rebekah Windgrave and Katherine mc. Donnell the sum of ten pounds to be paid to him, her, or them respectively who shall so discover and cause the said persons or any of them to be apprehended, by the Collector of the District or place where such persons shall be taken and put into custody. And we do hereby strictly Charge and Command all His Majesty's Officers Civil and Military, and all other His Loving Subjects who shall know where any of the said persons are that they do discover the said persons and every of them to some of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace that they may be apprehended; and that no person or persons do presume to receive, comfort, conceal, relieve or aid the said persons in their escape or otherwise as they will answer the contrary at their utmost perils. And we do further strictly Charge and Command all Collectors and other Officers of His Majesty's Customs in the several Ports and Creeks, and all Masters and Officers of Ships and Vessels that they make strict and diligent enquiry after the said Persons, and that they stop all persons whom they shall suspect to be any of the Persons above-named, who shall endeavour to Embark themselves in any Ships or Vessels whatsoever, and that they shall cause the said Persons suspected to be Arrested and secured, and give immediate Notice thereof to one of Our Secretaries, to the end the said Persons may be proceeded against according to Law.

Given at His Majesties Castle in Dublin the 18th day of January, 1694.

Porter, Can. Inchiquin, Ri. Reynell, Jn^o Hely, Rich. Cox, Walter Plunket, H. Ingoldesby.

GOD Save the KING.

